Sen. McManus' cable show to feature D.A.R.E. program

LANSING – In May, Sen. Michelle McManus' cable show will highlight the work of the Drug Abuse Resistance Education program in Michigan schools and the training police officers undergo to become D.A.R.E. teachers.

McManus' guest will be Randy Tripp, a retired state police officer. Tripp has taught in the D.A.R.E. program and has been training fellow officers since 1990, first with the state police and now through Michigan State University.

The show also is getting a new name. "Conversations with Michelle McManus, State Senator" will now be called "In Touch with Northern Michigan." Constituent Mike Paulin submitted the winning entry to an e-mail contest McManus held to determine the new name.

"In Touch with Northern Michigan" can be seen on Cadillac Community TV, TCTV2, and Manistee Cable TV. Check local listings for times and channels.
